Reminders

Wash your hands!

With cold/flu season upon us, be sure to wash your child's hands when they come to school and before they leave school to help keep everyone healthy!

Cold weather clothes

Bring weather appropriate change of clothes for your child along with outdoor attire such as heavy coat, hat, gloves, and scarves.

Snowy days

Keep an eye out for memos about snow days! Also, if you have any snow pants, suits, or boots that your child can no longer wear, we are welcoming donations! These will be used as extra to keep at the center.'

Days the Center will be closed

The Center will be closed Jan. 2nd and 16th*

Learning Themes

January: Staying Healthy

February: Imagination

March: Habitats

Special Acknowledgments

In the start of the new year, The Johnson Family will be starting a new chapter and will be moving to Minnesota. Maddie and her whole family will be greatly missed! Bartos Child and Family Center wishes you all the best on this new journey!

We also want to give a special thanks to all the families who participated in the pot-luck! The food was wonderful and the company was even better!

Past Activities

October:

Throughout the month of October, the children enjoyed many Fall themed events including trick-or-treating at Old Main! This was definitely the highlight of the month of October!

November:

During November, the children enjoyed making Indian corn in Toddlers, making leaves, and sharing what they were thankful for.

December:

The children and teachers enjoyed many holiday events including pajama day, holiday pot luck, cookie swap/baking cookies, and caroling in Preschool B!
